

SERVING WITH INTEGRITY

Welcome to PNC, one of the most well-respected financial services companies in America. Across our markets, we are helping active and former military men and women achieve their goals. That means providing products, services and career opportunities that reflect our commitment to you.

PNC Military Banking

Our customer focus at PNC is to make it easier to achieve your financial objectives with confidence. That's why we have created a banking program especially for active U.S. military, National Guard, reservists, retired military and veterans. Highlights include:

- Choice of traditional Performance Checking account or our interactive Virtual Wallet[®] with Performance Spend money management tools.*
- Online or mobile access to your accounts to help you stay connected even if you're stationed overseas.

We invite you to visit a PNC branch near you, see us online at www.pnc.com/military, or call 800-233-4171.

*Please see our current Consumer Schedule of Service Charges and Fees for monthly service charge information and for other fees and charges that may apply.

 A supported mobile device is needed to use Mobile Banking. Your wireless carrier may charge standard third party message and data rates.

The values you gained throughout your military service have provided you with many of the tools you need to succeed at PNC.

Career Opportunities

Our values of performance, respect, teamwork and integrity all play an important role in our diverse and inclusive workplace. We are proud to hire military talent and have created several programs to support your needs and opportunities:

- ◊ Military Advisory Council of executives from across the company who help to develop our recruiting strategies.
- ◊ Dedicated Talent Acquisition staff available to answer questions, discuss career paths, and help guide you through our hiring process.
- ◊ Established military partnerships with organizations such as Student Veterans of America, Orion International, Recruit Military, Cameron Brooks, MBAVeterans, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's Hiring Our Heroes program.
- ◊ Military Employee Business Resource Group which supports professional development, mentorship and networking opportunities for military/veteran employees.

Military-Friendly Employer

PNC has received the following recognition for our ongoing dedication to serving those who serve our country:

- ◊ GI Jobs Friendly Employer, GI Jobs (2013)
- ◊ One of Top 100 Companies Recruiting Veterans, U.S. Veterans Magazine (2012)
- ◊ Seven Seals Award and Patriot Award, Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve, Pennsylvania Chapter (2012)

We take pride in offering competitive benefits and compensation for all of our employees. That means providing programs and features designed to fit most individuals' needs and circumstances, including a military leave policy in line with all of the provisions of the Uniformed Services Employment and Re-employment Rights Act (USERRA). Under the USERRA, PNC offers:

- ◊ Job protection for eligible military leaves, approved for up to a cumulative maximum of five years while employed by PNC.
- ◊ Potential for continued pay and benefits for specific time periods.
- ◊ Paid time off for training or active duty for reservists and members of the National Guard.
- ◊ Articles and other educational resources designed to provide support for military employees and their families as they transition into PNC's workplace and culture.
